

I strongly oppose further media consolidation. You were appointed to serve serve the public's interest not the interest of the few and powerful! Do the right thing-- help preserve American democracy - not weaken it. More than ever, we need a diversity of voices.